

Useful websites:

"But I don't have a computer." Many public libraries have computers that can be used to access this information. If you need assistance in using a computer, please ask a librarian for guidance.

Idaho 2-1-1 Careline: <http://www.idahocareline.org/>

~ Click on "Get Help". Under GAP: Grandparents As Parents, there is a list of support groups.

Department of Health & Welfare:

<http://www.healthandwelfare.idaho.gov/Default.aspx>

USA information: <http://www.grandsplace.org/gp1/adoptindex.html> and support:

<http://grandsplace.org/PHP-Nuke/modules.php?name=Forums&file=index>

Idaho specific support and information:

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/IDGrandsforchildren/>

AARP website: <http://www.aarp.org/family/grandparenting/> and support:

<http://www.aarp.org/community/groups/>

The Foundation for Grandparenting: <http://www.grandparenting.org/>

Every Child Matters: <http://www.everychildmatters.org/>

Generations United:

<http://ipath.gu.org/Defin8191322.asp?gclid=CISTlrqvg50CFSFRagodkFiFaw>

American Bar Association Legal Resource Site:

<http://www.abanet.org/child/kinshipcare.shtml>

Casey Family Programs: <http://www.casey.org/>

Kincare Coalition: <http://www.idahokincarecoalition.org/>

Reactive Attachment Disorder in children: <http://www.radkid.org/>

Mothers Against Methamphetamine: <http://www.mamasite.net/visit/index.php>

Al-Anon / Alateen: <http://www.al-anon.alateen.org/>

Published by: Catherine Hepner, VISTA – 208-841-0246 (cell)

January, 2010

Department of Health & Welfare, c/o Navigation, 1720 Westgate Dr., Boise, ID 83704